Alexandria Gazette | ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE FOR 1880

TUESDAY EVEN'G., FEBRUARY 21.

Running a Paper.

Editing a paper is a pleasant business-if you like it.

If it contains so much political matter people won't have it.

If the type is large it don't contain much reading matter. if we publish telegraph reports folks say they are nothing but lies.

If we omit them, they say we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect.

If we have a few jokes, folks say we are noth ing but rattleheads. If we omit jokes, folks say we are an old fessil.

If we publish original matter, they damn us for not giving selections. If we give selections people say we are lazy for not writing more and giving them what they have not read in some other paper.

If we give a complimentary notice, we are consured for being partial.

If we do not, all hands say we are a great heg.

If we insert an article which pleases the ladies, the men become jealous, and vice versa.

If we attend church, they say it is only for offect.

If we remain in our office attending to our own business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with our fellows. It wo go out, they say we don't attend to business.

If we don't pay up promptly, they say we are not to be trusted. If we pay premptly, they say we stell the money .- Western Ex.

The Alexandria Gazetie, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay or decrepit, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily benest udgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Renter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the espacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events if you turn an eye to I. Elemburg's store you in the interest of the people of the Common wealth

> The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eightcenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial rituation, which may portend affluonce and comfert or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginia there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of these paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazette will be made a WASH-INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER. as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the Intelligence of that section of the Common wealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

the world whose rates affect this market will be dered that said defendant appear here withquoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investers in this section of the country. The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to af ford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazetta for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance.
